

Stop AIDS. Keep the Promise.

California Lutheran University

November 24th- December 2nd
World AIDS Day Art Exhibit- Condom Tree
Kwan Fong Gallery

Michael Pearce explores World AIDS Day through his representation of safer sex methods with his exhibit, the Condom Tree.

Monday, November 30th 7:00pm
"Little Secret" documentary screening
Lundring Events Center

Join us as we watch and discuss "Little Secret", a documentary featuring 10 HIV-positive teenagers who challenge themselves, their disease, and the whitewater rapids of the Salmon River.

All events are free, open to the public, and will be held at California Lutheran University's main campus in Thousand Oaks.

World AIDS Day December 1, 2009

Cal Lutheran is hosting all World AIDS Day events on behalf of Ventura County. Special thanks to the members of the Ventura County HIV/AIDS Coalition.

Tuesday, December 1st 4:30pm
Positively Speaking Panel at 4:30pm
Dinner and Discussion at 6:00pm
Keynote address with Dr. Evelyn Gonzalez and Dr. Matt Mutchler at 7:00pm
Lundring Events Center

Join us for CLU's annual World AIDS Day recognition events as we explore the epidemic both locally and globally. Immediately following the Keynote address, join us for a candlelight vigil, sponsored by Campus Ministries.

For more information, please contact Wellness Programs at (805)493-3950 or awhealo@callutheran.edu

Sponsored by:

Center for Equality and Justice

Wellness Programs
live well.